NEWSLETTER

Dear Parents,

'The Pharisees and their scribes complained to his disciples and said, 'Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?'<sup>31</sup> Jesus said to them in reply, 'It is not those that are well who need the doctor, but the sick.<sup>32</sup> I have come to call not the upright but sinners to repentance.'" Luke 5: 30-32

This is lesson from St Luke's Gospel. Following is a sobering read, if you dare....

"Dear Parent:

I know. You're worried. Every day, your child comes home with a story about THAT kid. The one who is always hitting, shoving, pinching, scratching, maybe even biting other children. The one who always has to hold my hand in the hallway. The one who has a special spot at the carpet, and sometimes sits on a chair rather than the floor. The one who had to leave the block centre because blocks are not for throwing. The one who climbed over the playground fence right exactly as I was telling her to stop. The one who poured his neighbour's milk onto the floor in a fit of anger. On purpose. While I was watching. And then, when I asked him to clean it up, emptied the ENTIRE paper towel dispenser. On purpose. While I was watching.

You're worried that THAT child is detracting from your child's learning experience. You're worried that he takes up too much of my time and energy, and that your child won't get his fair share. You're worried that she is really going to hurt someone some day. You're worried that "someone" might be your child. You're worried that your child is going to start using aggression to get what she wants. You're worried your child is going to fall behind academically because I might not notice that he is struggling to hold a pencil. I know.

Your child, this year, in this classroom, at this age, is not THAT child. Your child is not perfect, but she generally follows rules. He is able to share toys peaceably. She does not throw furniture. He raises his hand to speak. She works when it is time to work, and plays when it is time to play. He can be trusted to go straight to the bathroom and straight back again with no shenanigans. I know. I know, and I am worried, too.

You see, I worry all the time. About ALL of them. I worry about your child's pencil grip, and another child's letter sounds, and that little tiny one's shyness, and that other one's chronically empty lunchbox. I worry that Gavin's coat is not warm enough, and that Talitha's dad yells at her for printing the letter B backwards. Most of my car rides and showers are consumed with the worrying.

But I know, you want to talk about THAT child. Because Talitha's backward Bs are not going to give your child a black eye.

I want to talk about THAT child, too, but there are so many things I can't tell you.

I can't tell you that she was adopted from an orphanage at 18 months.

I can't tell you that he is on an elimination diet for possible food allergies, and that he is therefore hungry ALL. THE. TIME.

I can't tell you that her parents are in the middle of a horrendous divorce, and she has been staying with her grandma.

I can't tell you that I'm starting to worry that grandma drinks.

I can't tell you that his asthma medication makes him agitated.

I can't tell you that her mum is a single parent, and so she (the child) is at school from the moment before-care opens, until the moment after-care closes, and then the drive between home and school takes 40 minutes, and so she (the child) is getting less sleep than most adults.

I can't tell you that he has been a witness to domestic violence.

That's OK, you say. You understand I can't share personal or family information. You just want to know what I am DOING about THAT child's behaviour.

I would love to tell you. But I can't.

I can't tell you that she receives speech-language services, that an assessment showed a severe language delay, and that the therapist feels the aggression is linked to frustration about being unable to communicate.

I can't tell you that I meet with his parents EVERY week, and that both of them usually cry at those meetings. I can't tell you that the child and I have a secret hand signal to tell me when she needs to sit by herself for a while.

I can't tell you that he spends rest time curled in my lap because "it makes me feel better to hear your heart, Teacher."

I can't tell you that I have been meticulously tracking her aggressive incidents for 3 months, and that she has dropped from 5 incidents a day, to 5 incidents a week.

I can't tell you that the school secretary has agreed that I can send him to the office to "help" when I can tell he needs a change of scenery.

I can't tell you that I have stood up in a staff meeting and, with tears in my eyes, BEGGED my colleagues to keep an extra close eye on her, to be kind to her even when they are frustrated that she just punched someone AGAIN, and this time, RIGHT IN FRONT OF A TEACHER.

The thing is, there are SO MANY THINGS I can't tell you about THAT child. I can't even tell you the good stuff. I can't tell you that his classroom job is to water the plants, and that he cried with heartbreak when one of the plants died over winter break.

I can't tell you that she kisses her baby sister goodbye every morning, and whispers "You are my sunshine" before mum pushes the stroller away.

I can't tell you that he knows more about thunderstorms than most meteorologists.

I can't tell you that she often asks to help sharpen the pencils during playtime.

I can't tell you that she strokes her best friend's hair at rest time.

I can't tell you that when a classmate is crying, he rushes over with his favourite stuffy from the story corner.

The thing is, dear parent, that I can only talk to you about YOUR child. So, what I can tell you is this: If ever, at any point, YOUR child, or any of your children, becomes THAT child....

I will not share your personal family business with other parents in the classroom.

I will communicate with you frequently, clearly, and kindly.

I will make sure there are tissues nearby at all our meetings, and if you let me, I will hold your hand when you cry.

I will advocate for your child and family to receive the highest quality of specialist services, and I will cooperate with those professionals to the fullest possible extent.

I will make sure your child gets extra love and affection when she needs it most.

I will be a voice for your child in our school community.

I will, no matter what happens, continue to look for, and to find, the good, amazing, special, and wonderful things about your child.

I will remind him and YOU of those good amazing special wonderful things, over and over again.

And when another parent comes to me, with concerns about YOUR child ...

I will tell them all of this, all over again.

With so much love,

Teacher

It may leave some wondering, "Is that my child?" Reality is, parts of it can be every child at some time. The Gospel reading does not mean the 'healthy' are disregarded – by Jesus or other teachers. However, it demonstrates that the teaching role, especially these days, a challenge and more credit to them, the teachers in the world, and to the parents that work with them.

Gospel Reflection

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ The King, Year A

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: 'When the Son of Man comes in his glory, escorted by all the angels, then he will take his seat on his throne of glory. All the nations will be assembled before him and he will separate men one from another as the shepherd separates sheep from goats. He will place the sheep on his right hand and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right hand, "Come, you whom my Father has blessed, take for your heritage the kingdom prepared for you since the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me, sick and you visited me, in prison and you came to see me." Then the virtuous will say to him in reply, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you; or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you a stranger and make you welcome; naked and clothe you; sick or in prison and go to see you?" And the King will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me." Next he will say to those on his left hand, "Go away from me, with your curse upon you, to the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. For I was hungry and you never gave me food; I was thirsty and you never gave me anything to drink; I was a stranger and you never made me welcome, naked and you never clothed me, sick and in prison and you never visited me." Then it will be their turn to ask, "Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty, a stranger or naked, sick or in prison, and did not come to your help?" Then he will answer, "I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me." And they will go away to eternal punishment, and the virtuous to eternal life.'

In today's Gospel, Jesus describes to his disciples the scene of the judgment of the Son of Man. All the nations will be assembled before him, and he will separate them as a shepherd separates sheep and goats upon their return from the pasture. The judgments made by the Son of Man will be based upon the acts of mercy shown to the least ones—the hungry, the thirsty, the naked, the ill, and the imprisoned. Last week's parable of the talents taught us that the gifts that we have been given are intended to be used for the service of others, especially the least among us. Our judgment before God will be based not only on how we have used these gifts and talents, but also on how we have extended ourselves in service to these least ones.

This weekend with your family...

Jesus teaches us that we will be judged on only one thing: the acts of mercy we have shown to the least among us. Jesus identifies with the least ones; thus we serve Jesus whenever we serve one of the least ones. We might like to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to bury the dead, to shelter the homeless, to visit the sick and imprisoned, and to give alms to the poor. In these actions we show God's compassion and mercy to those in need. Talk about some concrete examples of how your family might do these actions in your community and then discuss why it is important that we do these things.

Spend time with the people you love this weekend!

Saint of the Week

Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Feast Day: November 21

When she was only three years old, her parents, St. Joachim and St. Anne, took Mary to the Temple in Jerusalem. There she would be educated in the service and the law of God so that she would be protected against the sins of the world. Mary's whole life was to belong to God as He had chosen her to be the Mother of his Son, Jesus. And St. Joachim and St. Anne were pleased to offer their saintly little girl to God. They knew that God had sent her to them. In the Temple, the high priest received the child Mary, where she was placed among the girls who were dedicated to prayer and Temple service. The high priest kissed and blessed the holy child. He realized that the Lord had great plans for her. Mary was happy to begin serving God in the Temple. She did not weep or turn back to her parents but came so happily to the altar that everyone in the Temple loved her at once. St. Joachim and St. Anne went back home. They praised God for their blessed daughter. And Mary remained in the Temple, where she grew in holiness. She spent her days reading the Bible, praying and serving the Temple priests. She made beautiful linens and wonderful vestments (robes that the priests wear). All the other girls loved Mary because she was so kind. Mary tried to do each of her duties well, to please God. She grew in grace and gave great glory to the Lord. (Sourced from Holy Spirit Interactive)

Note to Parents: "Parents, God does not simply want you to offer your children to Him in the temple, but requires you to take care to keep them pure and holy, as living temples which have been consecrated in Baptism." Have a great weekend. Mrs Emma-Kate Callaghan

RELIGIOUS LITERACY ASSESSMENT RESULTS 2014

As part of a Parramatta Diocesan wide assessment of religious literacy, all Year 4 and Year 6 students completed a Part A online assessment in August/September. The students answered 35 multiple choice questions that were drawn from the seven strands of Sharing Our Story: God, Jesus, Church, Scripture, Prayer, Sacraments and Christian Life. The questions related to their learning in Religious Education up to and including Year 4 or Year 6. While the questions were not the same for each student, the assessment was of equal difficulty overall.

In addition to the Part A Online Test, Year 4 students chose how they would demonstrate their learning in relation to the Sharing Our Story unit, 24C9 Reconciliation: God's Forgiveness and Healing as they undertook the Part B Extended Task. The Part B Task was marked locally by teachers in our school.

The children in our school performed very well in relation to the Diocesan results. Our average results were higher than the Diocesan average. Many children in our school achieved 100% in one or more of the seven strands of the Sharing Our Story Religious Education curriculum. Each child's results will be sent home in a report with the end of year reports.

We are extremely proud of the achievements of all the children who completed the Religious Literacy Assessment and will continue to provide Quality Catholic Schooling for your child in partnership with you. Thank you to the Year 4 and Year 6 teachers for all of their hard work in preparing the students for this assessment.

Mrs Emma-Kate Callaghan

CHRISTMAS COLLECTION FOR ST VINCENT DE PAUL

We are asking for donations to compile Christmas Hampers for St Vincent de Paul to help those who will not be able to celebrate Christmas the way we will. It is hard to imagine what it would feel like not to have a table full of beautiful food, Christmas presents and wrapping spread throughout the house. Christmas is always a time for us to enjoy the company of family and friends, huge lunches and dinners, and many, many presents.

Through our school community this is one opportunity for us to demonstrate God's love – not through some sense of obligation, but from a genuine love for others. This will allow the children to participate with you, as they may be able to help you select some items to add to the Christmas hampers while you are doing your grocery shopping over the coming weeks. It is a wonderful way to show our children the real meaning of giving, especially when they won't receive a gift in return.

Please talk to your children about this so they understand how we can serve others the way Jesus did, as we will be doing the same at school.

We will begin collecting donations of packaged foods from this Monday 24th November as we head towards the beginning of Advent – the time we prepare ourselves, our hearts, our minds, for the coming of Jesus at Christmas. The types of grocery items that will be suitable for the hampers are listed on this page. Each child will receive a slip of paper today, with an item to contribute to its classes hamper. All donations will need to be in by Friday of Week 9 (5th December) so that we can have the hampers ready to be collected by St. Vincent De Paul. I'm sure your generosity will make someone else's Christmas the joyful Season it is meant to be.

In conjunction with this, each class will also have a donation box on their prayer table that the children can put a gold coin donation into throughout the next few weeks.

“.....in so far as you did this to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did it to me.”

Thank you in advance for your generosity.
Mrs Emma-Kate Callaghan ☺

Swimming Programme Commences Next Week for Kindergarten & Year 3

The students will need to wear their swimmers underneath their school uniform (they are allowed to wear their sport uniform each day for swimming) and will need to bring the following items with them each day:-

- Thongs or sandals to change into and wear to and from the pool
- Towel
- Underwear
- T-shirt or jacket to wear to and from the pool
- Goggles – optional (these MUST be labelled)
- Swimming cap – optional. The students must have their hair tied back if it is long enough to cover their eyes when wet, otherwise the swim school recommends that parents provide a labelled swim cap.
- Please note: rash vests are not to be worn as it is an indoor pool.

Please make sure that everything is labelled and that your child recognises what he/she is bringing to school. Please understand that it is the children's responsibility to look after their own belongings.

Christmas Choir

Mr Quirk has been working with some children in the school choir this term and would now like to extend an invitation to any children in years 1-6 who would like to be part of the Special Christmas Choir. The Special Christmas Choir will perform an item at the school Christmas carols on December 16th. Participation in this choir is a privilege and requires a commitment from the children. Rehearsals will take place each Wednesday morning at 8.20am in the music room with Mr Quirk. Hope to lots of children there.

From the Classroom of 3G

In 3G we have been getting ready for the season of Advent and Christmas. We have been learning about how we can prepare for this special time in the Church and our lives.

This week we have created a Nativity Scene artwork, which represents the birth of Jesus. They were fun to make and look fabulous in the classroom

Year 4 Excursion to.....

On the 12th of November Year Four went on an excursion to Cumberland State Forest in conjunction with our HSIE Unit State and National Parks. We all had an enjoyable time and got to participate in a number of activities including a 1.3km bush walk, animal detectives, the sensory trail and planting our very own sapling that will now be a part of our gardens. Both rangers were absolutely lovely and taught us about how to sustain a eucalyptus forest and the large range of fauna that can be located there. We would like to thank our parent helpers who spent the day with us and we hope that they enjoyed it as much as we did, because we cannot stop talking about it in Year Four.

Year 4 iLearn Program

This week, Year 4 had some special visitors to their classroom. Three teachers from St Joseph's Primary School, Schofields and members of the iLearn program visited our classroom to see the wonderful things we have been doing with our iPads. We showed them what we have been working on in Science for our PBL (Project Based Learning) on mini worlds. During the visit, we showed them some of the Google Docs we have created that show our new knowledge and scripts we developed to help us during the filming of our documentary. The students articulated their thinking and the processes they have used confidently and explained the purpose of the task and intended audience. It was a great opportunity to see others how we have been using our iPads to benefit our learning.

Here are two students' views from the experience:

On Wednesday my PBL group were asked some questions about our documentary and we answered them confidently and in detail. These questions included How did you do this? What are you doing it on? This was some of the questions asked about our group and it was fun. They filmed us while we were filming and doing our work. We all answered questions equally and we were exited.

My group and I were all doing equal amount of work and we all shared our ideas about each other's ideas and comments about the film that we had done. E.g. Was there to much sun or face in the video. We all contributed to each other and agreed and disagreed about ideas. The CEO and St. Joseph's teachers told us ways to edit and do our work more effectively and we took the feedback and it helped us.

This was a great learning curve because it helped my group and we are going to follow the instructions.
Brock Crook

When the visitors came into our classroom, you wanted to show them our document but we had deleted the talking part. After Madison completed the title page, we started recording my part that we deleted and then we went to show them. We had a diagram and one of the ladies suggested we should cover the words and then on the next diagram we should show the missing words.

Another lady told us that we should put down what we're saying on a bar for people that cannot hear well as I might have spoken too softly. I really enjoyed having other teachers in the classroom giving my group feedback and not just from Miss Grima and Miss Pepin all the time. It was great having the other teachers come back and see how much we have improved and learnt how to use our iPads in a more effective way.

Annalise Coelho

From the Parish Office...

Bingo

The Parish will be holding it's final Bingo for the year. This night is heaps of fun and children are welcome. There are also lots of great prizes.

Saturday, 22 November at 7pm in the OOSH room.

Sacramental Program

Our final week for the Sacrament of Reconciliation is next Saturday. First Holy Communions will begin in May 2015. Please continually check the parish website and the parish bulletin early in the new year. A note from Fr Warren and Anthony: Please remember that weekend masses are not optional from now on as you have obviously chosen to help your kids come closer to God and be part of our greater family. We would like to see you and the kids there as they continue their sacramental journey towards First Communion next year in June.

Christmas 2014!!

OLA Parish will be holding it's Christmas Party on Sunday, 21 December. Your family are invited to come along and celebrate the birth of Jesus and the wonderful year Our Lady of the Angels has had.

Santa Claus will be coming to visit us on this day. There is a sign-up sheet in the Church for you to complete. Please note, last year unfortunately, a lot of families did not attend after putting their names down, resulting in Santa being overloaded with extra presents and a lot of prepared food being wasted.
