

Dear Parents,

This coming week we celebrate the Feast of the Immaculate Conception, on the 8th December. Many people have the misconception that this refers to the conception of Jesus. In fact, it refers to the conception of Mary. From this moment that she came into existence, God knew that she was to be the vessel to carry the saviour of the world. It was part of God's salvation plan for us. Mary was so special that she was born without original sin. For this reason, she is often referred to as 'the new Eve'. It is this state of 'immaculate conception' that we remember and revere each year on this feast day.

Congratulations

Sunday 4th December: 2nd Sunday of Advent-Year A (Matthew: 3:1-12)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.

In due course John the Baptist appeared; he preached in the wilderness of Judaea and this was his message: 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is close at hand.' This was the man the prophet Isaiah spoke of when he said:

A voice cries in the wilderness:

Prepare a way for the Lord,
make his paths straight.

This man John wore a garment made of camel-hair with a leather belt round his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. Then Jerusalem and all Judaea and the whole Jordan district made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. But when he saw a number of Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism he said to them, 'Brood of vipers, who warned you to fly from the retribution that is coming? But if you are repentant, produce the appropriate fruit, and do not presume to tell yourselves, "We have Abraham for our father," because, I tell you, God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. Even now the axe is laid to the roots of the trees, so that any tree which fails to produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown on the fire. I baptise you in water for repentance, but the one who follows me is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to carry his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand; he will clear his threshing-floor and gather his wheat into the barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.'

Reflection: In Matthew's Gospel this Sunday, we hear John the Baptist asking people to repent and be forgiven for their sins to help prepare the way for the coming of Christ. We are asked to prepare ourselves during Advent to head towards the celebration of the Nativity. We are waiting and preparing for the presence of God in our world. God became incarnate in the world through Jesus but also always was and continues to be incarnate in the world through each person. To prepare for Advent, we can go without something just like in Lent for the 4 weeks of Advent, prayer as a family, receive the sacrament of Reconciliation and give to others who are lonely, homeless or in despair. It is the gift of giving that warms our hearts and brings the true meaning of Christmas. Following in Jesus' mission, 'To Love one another as I have loved you.' (Liturgy Help, 1-12-2016)

This prayer, which beautifully picks up the themes of the readings as a whole, can be read together as a family for reflection.

God,
there is no other source
of comfort and peace than you,
you alone.
You alone are mercy and justice.
You alone have called me beyond myself
to proclaim your coming.
My path is filled with distractions,
but you call me to see forward clearly,
to unclutter the way
and build a highway for you – singing all the way!
Every day this Advent,
may I answer faithfully to you and be the bold prophet that you ask each of us to be.
Help me be more daring
than I have ever been before,
to withstand ridicule and mockery
and risk everything

that is comfortable and easy.
While the roadway may be dangerous,
the finish line is victory unsurpassed!
You come into my life
and take away my fear.
You lead and feed me
with all that I need.
I hear what you announce to me –
peace, kindness, truth
and justice.
All you have promised,
and all comes from your hand.
May I know your strength
while I prepare your way – safe travel for all of us.
Amen.

(Haas, Praying with the Word, pp. 16-17)

CHRISTMAS EVE CHILDREN'S MASS 24th December @ 5.30pm in the OLA church

We need volunteers to participate in the Nativity play on Christmas Eve. If you are attending the 5.30 pm Christmas Eve children's Mass, can you please Email the office Attn: Mrs Byrne with your children's names, so I can choose children to participate in the Nativity play. Can you please Email before Tuesday 6th December, as I will be choosing children for the roles and running through the play on Tuesday.

OLA Christmas Concert/ Carols

On the 14th December, Andrew Chinn singer/songwriter will be spending the day with OLA students teaching them songs to sing at the 6.30pm concert/carol night. Each grade will be singing the songs they have been taught during the day and will be supported by the choir. Students will gather in the church around 6.15pm and will be sitting in their grade groups in the church. They will be then called up to sing their songs.

Xt3 Advent Calendar

This year's Xt3 free Advent Calendar looks at the Nativity scene through the eyes of a child. The website and app contain videos, meditations and podcasts for the Christmas season. Available on the First Sunday of Advent: www.xt3.com/advent

Formation in Themes of Faith

This guided exploration of key components of Catholic life is designed for people who are keen for mutual conversation and prepared reflection – no prior formal studies in faith are required. The Institute for Mission partners with the Institute of Faith Education (Archdiocese of Brisbane) in offering this program. Participants complete the Institute of Faith Education's Beginning Theology course. An engaging collection of provided readings are the stimulus for the group to further explore the Catholic faith. The process helps participants in their competency and ongoing growth regarding several key areas of life in faith: God (themes of Spirituality and Trinity), Word of God (themes of Scripture, Old and New), People of God (themes of Church, Sacrament and Spirit) and Living in God's Love (themes of Catholic teaching and living). Applications close 11 December. Details: <http://www.ifm.org.au/themesoffaith>

Literacy News

Executive Director's Summer Reading Challenge

These summer holidays, Mr Greg Whitby is again launching his Summer Reading Challenge to encourage all students to read, read, read! Students can read anything they like to enter the challenge, whether it's a comic, play, poetry, book, e-book or novel. This year there is no minimum number of books to read and there are more chances of winning a prize.

Bug Club Update

Bug Club Digital has transitioned to a new platform, ActiveLearn Primary. This means that to log into Bug Club you'll need to go to:

www.activelearnprimary.com.au

The student's username and password will be the same; however you will also need to enter our new school code. The code is unique to our school. ActiveLearn Primary will remember our school code so you should only have to enter this once. The school code for Our Lady of the Angels is sxlh

Please let me know if you have any queries.

Uniform Shop News

The uniform shop is now located behind the canteen area, opposite the new Year 3 classrooms.

Hours are Tuesday 8.20am – 9.30am.

Uniform orders can be left at the office, through the notebag, via email or over the phone at any time throughout the week, and they will be filled on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Please DO NOT ask for a hat or any other item first thing in the morning, as the shop is now not easily accessible and we will not be able to supply it.

The last day for trading for 2016 will be Tuesday 13th December.

Thank You!!!

The staff at OLA would like to thank you for your help in the classroom, on excursions, with book covering, special treats and all the other ways you contribute to our wonderful school. Please attend the Parent Thank You Afternoon Tea on Monday 12th December at 2.15pm. We look forward to seeing you there and thanking you for your help.
