Week 1 Term 3

21st July, 2017

"There where you are, God is".
St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

Dear Parents,

Welcome back to school for Term 3. I trust you have spent some extra quality time with your children over the two-week break, being 'present' for your children, even for a short time, is more valuable than spending hours in the same room but being preoccupied and not 'really there'. Children (and dogs, I find) are very perceptive at detecting sincerity so there is no pretending to listen. I hope you also found some time for yourself as you deserve.

During my break, I attended Sunday Mass at the cathedral in Goulburn. Visiting different churches is interesting and noting the ways they do things differently e.g. both collections are done at the same time and no one takes their handbag with them when they go to receive Communion (as they do in my parish). One thing that seems to be the same is the sea of silver heads. There aren't too many gathering where I am consistently among the youngest. This doesn't seem to be the case at Our lady of the Angels and that is a credit to Fr Warren and all of you. However it is a fact in most parishes and we are reminded to pray for all young Catholics that they may renew their obligation to practise their faith through regular attendance at Sunday Mass, especially with their children.

PBS4L

Many years ago, I attended a course at Sydney Uni. on advanced teaching skills. I always remember the facilitator saying, 'Who is going to love the neglected, tattooed and pierced* teenager in juvenile detention and take the time to build his/her self-worth?'

This week, Mrs Schroder and I attended a PBL (Positive Behaviour for Learning) Conference in Brisbane. As you know, OLA launched the PBS4L (also PBL) program just over 12 months ago. The foundations of PBL are to provide those in our care with a positive view on themselves and confidence in their ability. Feeling positive allows engagement and engagement means better learning outcomes. Our challenge for us is to continue to build a positive environment and have confidence in student expectations. We cannot do this alone. We need you to also practise this positive attitude at home. This is our goal for this term and we hope you will join in supporting us.

*not that there is anything wrong with tats and piercings ☺

Welcome...

This term, Mrs Hunt (Tracy) joins the OLA Admin Staff as full time. Tracy has worked for many years at OLA Kellyville, assisting in Library as well as admin. For the past two years she has worked in a part time capacity but, with the growth of the school and the ever-increasing demands in administration, this full time role will provide the dire need for assistance. Most schools of our size (and even smaller) have three full time office staff. I take this opportunity to acknowledge Helen Goldsworthy and the excellent way in which she calmly and efficiently orchestrates the many and varied demands of the school office. Welcome Tracy.

KTOOSH

From next week, KTOOSH will be operating out of the two demountable buildings and no longer accessing the end of the Parish Office building. As you can appreciate the growth of this service over the years has demanded a much bigger area from which to function. KTOOSH will be contacting their clients regarding the move and the implications for students.

I would like to thank Fr Warren for his generosity in allowing KTOOSH to have the use of this space, badly needed for the parish office.

Term 3 Week 1 Gospel Reflection (Matthew 13:24-30)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Let them grow together until the harvest.

Jesus put a parable before the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everybody was asleep his enemy came, sowed darnel all among the wheat, and made off. When the new wheat sprouted and ripened, the darnel appeared as well. The owner's servants went to him and said, "Sir, was it not good seed that you sowed in your field? If so, where does the darnel come from?" "Some enemy has done this" he answered. And the servants said, "Do you want us to go and weed it out?" But he said, "No, because when you weed out the darnel you might pull up the wheat with it. Let them both grow till the harvest; and at harvest time I shall say to the reapers: First collect the darnel and tie it in bundles to be burnt, then gather the wheat into my barn.'"

Gospel Reflection

Sunday's Gospel reading features three parables about the kingdom: the weeds in the field; the mustard seed; and yeast in the flour. They are three fascinating parables about something undesirable or unwanted being mixed in with something that is apparently good – and Jesus presents them as descriptions of what the kingdom of heaven is like. Let's look at the imagery of these parables. Darnel is a weed that looks exactly like wheat while it is growing. Only once the ears have formed can it be distinguished from the wheat. It is a malicious prank to sow darnel among wheat. The mustard seed grows into such a large tree that birds come and nest in it. Why would any farmer want to deliberately plant a tree in the middle of his fields that attracts birds that will destroy his crops? Three measures of flour is an enormous amount of flour; enough to make 50 or 60 loaves of bread! Yeast begins to ferment the dough mixture and if not baked the dough goes mouldy and goes bad. To leaven that much dough at one time is somewhat foolish. The Hebrew word used for leavening in scripture is Chametz, it literally means 'sour'. It is that essence by which things decay. Leavening is a fermentation process – a process of breaking down or corruption.

To describe the kingdom of God in these ways may seem a bit odd. Can the kingdom of God be a 'corrupting' or 'souring' or 'irritating' influence? The kingdom message of Jesus can be seen as a corrupting force in that it set about corrupting and destroying what was a flawed system. The parables also demonstrate that it only takes a tiny amount of this 'corrupting' influence to have a dramatic effect.

God Bless,

Literacy News

Root Word of the Week Initiative:

Commencing next week, all students will study a root word each week. This is to promote the study or etymology of words. Our literacy goal this year is for students to develop strategies to assist in spelling unknown words. Many of the words we use come from a root word. Once you take away any prefixes or suffixes, the root will be normally at the front or the back of the remaining word. A little digging will uncover just what the root word really means. For example, in a word such as scissors, the root word is sciss, which means cut. Studies show that if we know the meaning of the base word, we will be more willing to spell the rest of the word by adding a prefix or suffix to the word.
