Week 7 Term 1

11th March, 2016

"Blessed are the merciful, for mercy they will find".

Dear Parents,

When my daughter, Danielle, was 15, she came home from school one day and said to me, "I know why babies of 'mixed marriages' are beautiful. It's God's reward to them for not being racist. Of course, all babies are beautiful. However, I thought this was a rather reflective statement from a teenager.

Last Friday, Danielle and her husband were thus rewarded with the arrival of their beautiful Eurasian baby boy, born in New York City. For my husband and I, this is an addition to the great joy and privilege that is Grandparenthood.

I suppose like grandparents always have, I lament and worry about the world into which these little children will grow. In the Old Testament, the Hebrew scripture says, "Woe to those who call evil good and good evil; who put darkness for light and light for darkness." Isaiah 5:20

I know that, as a creation of God's, the world and its people are essentially wonderful. As Christians, we know that God is always with us. We are in His hands and salvation is ours. However, we have a responsibility to be mindful of the influences of the 'decision makers' in the world around us, in particular the media. Personally, I have a concern over the increasing prevalence of 'political correctness' – and wonder if it is a subliminal movement to shut down the freedom of speech?

Do we have the ability to discern what is evil and what is good?

Do we have the ethical fortitude to stand up for what we know is good and not be drawn into accepting that which is simply the trend of the day? (Maybe it's not PC to say any of that ☺)

Catholic Schools Week

On Wednesday, we had an 'invitation only' open school session for selected professional groups and preschools in the local area. It was very well received and I was very pleased with the opportunity to show them 'our school'. The feedback was very positive and they were very impressed – with the engagement of students and the obvious hard work and dedication of the staff. Later that day, we had visitors from two neighbouring schools as well as CEDP who also were very impressed with the way the year has begun.

Reading is Cool!

Clearly there are many people in the community who also think that reading is cool!! There was great response to our whole community reading session on Thursday afternoon. Thank you to so many who turned up to roll out their blanket and share in reading a book with their children and others' children. The sun was hot and shade was scarce but they found a spot. Today, the students participated in a whole school writing task from Kinder to Year 6. Thanks go to Mrs Hurst for her continued work in driving the improvement in Literacy for all our students.

This Sunday's Gospel

Gospel Reflection (John 8:1-11)

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. <sup>2</sup>At daybreak he appeared in the Temple again; and as all the people came to him, he sat down and began to teach them. The scribes and Pharisees brought a woman along who had been caught committing adultery; and making her stand there in the middle they said to Jesus, 'Master, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery, and in the Law Moses has ordered us to stone women of this kind. What have you got to say?' They asked him this as a test, looking for an accusation to use against him. But Jesus bent down and started writing on the ground with his finger. As they persisted with their question, He straightened up and said, 'Let the one among you who is guiltless be the first to throw a stone at her.' Then he bent down and continued writing on the ground. When they heard this they went away one by one, beginning with the eldest, until the last one had gone and Jesus was left alone with the woman, who remained in the middle. Jesus again straightened up and said, 'Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?' 'No one, sir,' she replied. 'Neither do I condemn you,' said Jesus. 'Go away, and from this moment sin no more.'

In John's Gospel, Jesus is once again talking and teaching to a crowd of His followers, when he is interrupted by a group of angry men. With them is a woman who has broken a commandment. The men's hands are full of stones that they are ready to use to harm the woman. Jesus bends down to the woman and then writes in the sand a message that stops the crowd. It is a powerful message of repentance and forgiveness. Jesus wants the crowd to think of their own sins before condemning others. The message asks the crowd of angry men to only throw the first stone if they are faultless and free from sin. It is through John's Gospel we can see that God sent His only Son to save us. It is through the Sacrament of Reconciliation, we can also share in the salvation brought by Jesus. We ask for forgiveness and try not to sin again, by leading a life of dignity and holiness. (God's Word 2016-Daily Reflections)

Sacrament of Holy Communion

This week students in Year 3 received information from the parish about enrolling in the program for students to prepare and receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion. If your child is in Years 4-6 and has received the Sacraments of Baptism and Reconciliation and you wish for them to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion, please print the attached letter from the parish and return it to the church as soon as possible. All forms need to be submitted to the parish by 18th May 2016. This information can also be obtained in the Weekly Church Bulletin and on the table at the back of the Church.

Project Compassion Boxes

Please remember that one way you can contribute and help others suffering from poverty during the Lent season is by contributing to your project compassion box. Please return all boxes by the Holy Thursday on the 24th March.

Literacy News

Reading Afternoon

What a wonderful afternoon! Thank you to all family members who joined their children for an afternoon of reading. Despite the warm weather, the afternoon was a fabulous way to relax and enjoy a good book. This reading afternoon will be a regular event.

Writing Staff Development Day

Last Friday the OLA teachers completed a Persuasive Writing Marking Course. It was an opportunity to analyse writing samples, engage in professional conversations and identify strengths and needs. We will be using this criterion to mark writing, give specific feedback and to identify where to next for our students.

2016 National day of Action against Bullying and Violence

On the 18th March, OLA will be participating in the National day of Action against Bullying and Violence. Our captains will be speaking to the students throughout the week about 'Bullying NO WAY!' and giving students some tips and strategies to deal with bullying.

OLA will join other Australian school communities to say "Bullying. No Way! Take a Stand Together." Captains will also be distributing wristbands to all OLA students, reminding them to take a stand and say 'NO WAY to bullying!'"

Please refer to the 'no bullying' brochure attached to this newsletter email.

Bullying – what can you do?

If it happens in person:

- ignore them
- tell them to stop and then walk away
- pretend you don't care
- go somewhere safe
- get support from your friends.

If it happens online:

- avoid responding to the bullying
- block and report anyone who is bullying online
- protect yourself online – use privacy settings and keep records.

If you see someone being bullied:

- leave negative online conversations – don't join in
- support others being bullied.

If it doesn't stop:

- talk to an adult (parent, teacher) who can help stop the bullying
- keep asking for support until the bullying stops.

Mackillop Trials

Congratulations to Tyler S for successfully making it into the Mackillop Softball team. He will not only be representing the Parramatta Diocese but Our Lady of Angels. We wish Tyler all the best throughout the next competition.

*Thank you to those who have volunteered to help us out. It's made a huge difference in the morning drop off.

*Thank you to those who have staggered the afternoon pick up which also has improved the flow of afternoon traffic.

*Fr Warren has requested that parents who come into the school in the morning with their children leave the car park directly after the assembly to free parking spaces for parishioners wanting to attend Mass.

Perhaps, if you are intending to stay on longer, you might consider parking in the areas on Centenary Oval or Bruce Purser and walk over with your children. This is a valuable opportunity to teach your children road safety.

Thank you for your cooperation.
