Week 1 Term 2

4th May, 2018

"There where you are, God is". St Mary of the Cross MacKillop

Dear Parents,

Welcome back to school for Term 2. The term has started well with students settled and well into their learning.

Last Sunday's Gospel reading was about Jesus is the vine and we are the branches. Any good farmer knows the importance of pruning, cutting off the parts of the vine, or any plant, so that it may flourish in its perfection and best.

It is said that Michelangelo saw a block of stone and said, "An angel is imprisoned in that marble; I must get him out." A sculpture is revealed in its perfection through the process of 'taking away' what is excess and not needed, that which spoils it.

In our lives, we need to reflect of the extra 'baggage' we take on; the things that lessen us in being the best we can be, the way God made us. The most significant thing we can do to be the best we can is to 'Keep holy the Sabbath day' – attend Mass on Sunday with our children. This helps to keep our relationship with God alive and to live good lives.

Mothers' Day

Next Friday, the whole school will attend Mass on Friday to honour all mothers. This will be followed by morning tea. This is always a grand event of great numbers. I look forward to mingling with all mums and grand-mums. Thank you to the P&F for organizing this.

The Mothers' Day Stall will be held on WEDNESDAY, not Thursday as previously noted on the calendar. Please make sure your slips and payments are in before then as instructed by the P&F.

Thank you to Mrs Lenane for taking our school captains to represent our school at the Anzac Day Dawn Service.

The Ode

*They shall grow not old,
As we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them,
Nor the years condemn;
At the going down of the sun
And in the morning*

WE WILL REMEMBER THEM.

Gospel Reflection for the Sixth Sunday of Easter (Jn 17:11-19)

Sunday 6th May

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Father, may they be one, even as we are one.

“Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

‘Holy Father,

keep those you have given me true to your name, so that they may be one like us.

While I was with them, I kept those you had given me true to your name.

I have watched over them and not one is lost except the one who chose to be lost, and this was to fulfil the scriptures.

But now I am coming to you and while still in the world I say these things to share my joy with them to the full.

I passed your word on to them, and the world hated them, because they belong to the world no more than I belong to the world.

I am not asking you to remove them from the world, but to protect them from the evil one.

They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world.

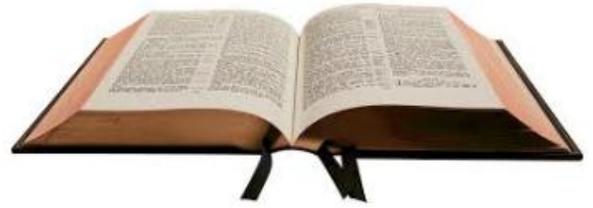

Consecrate them in the truth; your word is truth.

As you sent me into the world,

I have sent them into the world,

and for their sake I consecrate myself

so that they too may be consecrated in truth.”

Gospel Reflection

A pagan Roman officer was so evidently graced by the Holy Spirit that St Peter realised that the followers of Jesus Christ need not be constrained within the confines of Judaism. This incident, together with St Paul’s mission, has helped Christianity spread to every tribe and nation on the face of the earth.

‘Catholic’ simply means ‘worldwide’, and the Church’s universal mission is to preach the truth of Christ’s victory over death and the true meaning of love: ‘No greater love can a man have than to lay down his life for his friend.’

In our experience, this is best exemplified in the desire of a mother or father to substitute themselves for a dying infant or child. Our Lord practised what he preached with incredible intensity. He substituted himself for the whole of humanity dying because of a broken relationship with its Creator. He did so on behalf of us whom he calls friends, those with whom he wishes to share his victory over death.

This is the message entrusted to the members of the one, holy, catholic and apostolic church to be spread to the people of every tribe and nation.

We could take a moment to pray that we better express our undying gratitude for our status as friends of the Risen Lord, and better do our part as missionary disciples spreading the news of his great love embracing the whole of humanity. (LiturgyHelp.com, Fr Michael Tate.)

Helping Your Child with Spelling:

Experience stories. Let your child write about the things they like. They can illustrate the stories himself or cut pictures from magazines to illustrate them. Let them write the words without assistance unless they asks for help. Misspelled words can then be used in little games you play with your child. A one-line "story" may be all that they can handle. If so, fine.

From the Classroom of..... 2W

This week we discovered how ingredients combine and change through heating and cooling. Our “Kids in the Kitchen” Science Day was so much fun! We learnt about the importance of safety and hygiene in the kitchen. We mixed, dissolved, heated and cooled many ingredients to make jelly, chocolate mousse, pizzas and popcorn. What an exciting day of learning!

Mother's Day Morning Tea - Friday 11th May

The day is almost here, we can see the smiles on the children's faces as they are excited to buy something for Mum, Nan or another significant female figure in their lives. Make sure you have returned your note with correct money, so you don't miss out. Monday is the last day. As an added bonus, for every Mother's Day gift purchased, you will receive a ticket into a raffle to win some extra Mother's Day gifts.

Mother's Day Morning Tea will be held on Friday at the conclusion of Mass. Come and enjoy a cup of tea or coffee and some yummy cake too.

We are also looking for some generous bakers to bake some yummy treats for us all to share. You can drop these goodies off to the office on Friday morning.

If you can help with the Mother's Day Stall or Mother's Day morning tea, then please send us an email or message on facebook. You can still volunteer if you have toddlers 😊

Diocesan Cross Country 2018

“TAKE YOUR MARK...”

“...GO

We were off and running, attempting to push our way to the front of the pack. There we were, racing down the straight, sweating & already feeling the burn in our legs. The crowds were cheering when we were coming down the track, sprinting and trying to do our best.

On Tuesday, the first of May OLA competed in the Diocesan Cross Country. We all did so well & some of us came quite close to getting to the next level. Having this experience is really fun and it keeps you healthy. We hope lots more OLA students get a chance to do this.

Congratulations to everyone who competed in the Cross Country this year, for getting out there and giving it their best. – Emily & Thomas
